

2013 - 2014 Senate Districts

Los Angeles Area

San Diego Area

San Francisco Area

The yellow color represents odd-numbered districts created by the Citizens Redistricting Commission in 2011, which went into effect during the 2012 election cycle.

The pink color represents even-numbered districts created in 2001 and active until the 2014 election cycle. 2014 elections will be held in the new even-numbered Senate districts created by the Citizens Redistricting Commission in 2011.

The unshaded areas represent the deferred areas that will have assigned coverage in the Senate for 2013-2014.

The orange color represents the accelerated areas for 2013-2014.